DAILY SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.
A. H. BROWN AND J. W. DUGAN, EDITORS.

WEDNESDAY MORNING NOVEMBER 26 1862

JOB PRINTING of all kinds—PAINTS, CATALOGUES, SHOP SIGNS, BANK CHECKS, PLACARDS, COCONUT SHELL, VARNISH AND BUSINESS CARDS, POSTERS, &c., &c., &c., neatly and promptly executed by THIS OFFICE upon moderate terms. Special attention given to Rail Road Printing.

Keep it before the People that serve you.

Has enlarged many a small business; Has revived many a dull business;

Has saved many a lost business; Has preserved many a large business.

And we would also, place before the People the fact, that both the Daily and Weekly State Sentinel are most excellent advertising mediums.

Winter is here, and cold nights are coming. The following advice how to keep warm on a cold night, will doubtless be received by our readers with favor. It appeared many years ago in a New York City paper, but is just as appropriate now as then:

Heads—in winter's storm and blizzard.

Hair over ears.

Handkerchiefs at the nose.

My nose.

And then to great distress by frost,

the teeth.

Leave nothing. Fingers, ears of old,

Counted off like fingers & a string of beads.

Then let me tell the how to wear

the coat and hat so as to keep it from a man's neck & coat.

Then lay it in a pocket.
